Cunningham

Agenda:

- Review minutes from the January 15 meeting
- Discuss options for the future of the Freedom Senior Resource Coordinator position after meeting with the BOS.

Future:

- Gibson Center (AARP) update
- Investigate establishing non-town groups to disseminate information pertaining to unofficial services and possibly apply for communications funds
- Update on initiatives from other towns
- Other business

This meeting is open to the public.

Charge of the Committee

This committee will study ways to help seniors stay in town. The charge of this committee is:

1. Identify why seniors are leaving Freedom
 - Interview seniors who have left Freedom for other places to understand why they were unable to stay in town
 - Review "aging in place" literature to identify the factors that help seniors to stay in their homes or in their town.
2. Identify services to help seniors stay in their homes, i.e., making homes safe and livable on one floor, helpers for chores or activities of daily living, transportation to shopping and doctors, social outings or home visits, and other support (specify)
 - Identify where to source the services
 - Find who can provide services, what cost, whether there are grants to cover them
 - Describe how to deliver and who will pay?
